

		Diocese of Nova Scotia Provincial Synod Records File Listing
File	File Title	Dates	Extent	Additional Notes	Location

1	Diocesan Council for Social Service	1936-1941	3 cm	Official file of documents related to social service activities, with categories as identified in a cover page as: child welfare, constitution, credit unions, housing, insanity, jails, library, mother's allowances, relief work, unemployment insurance, and Victorian Order. Includes brochures, pamphlets, correspondence, acts and bylaws, and reports. Includes a report of the Halifax Citizens Housing Committee and A. G. Dalzell on housing issues in Halifax (n.d.); reports on jails in Nova Scotia, referencing the Anglican Social Service Commission in P. E. Island (ca. 1933, 1936); memos on liquor laws (ca. 1939); a report on public health (ca. 1936); reports on nursing services in Prince Edward Island (ca. 1936); and Bulletins of the Council for Social Service, Church of England in Canada (ca. 1937-1941).	Box 90
2	Provincial Synod Correspondence and Documents	1955-1967, N.D.	2.5 cm	Various documents, including correspondence, reports, minutes, and printed papers, related to a range of synod issues, including use of the Book of Common Prayer, changes to Canon Law, and various matters of synod business. The file seems to have been created and used primarily by H. L. Palmer, who is identified in correspondence as Judge of the Probate Court in Prince Edward Island and Chancellor of the Diocese of Nova Scotia between the 1950s and 1970s. Details of his positions and tenure are not confirmed.	Box 90

		Diocese of Nova Scotia Provincial Synod Records File Listing
File	File Title	Dates	Extent	Additional Notes	Location
3	Diocese of Nova Scotia Correspondence and Documents	1961-1972	2 cm	Various documents, including correspondence, reports, minutes, and printed papers, related to a range of diocesan issues, including acts and bylaws, and revisions to constitutions and canon laws and parish bylaws. Also includes correspondence between Harold L. Palmer and Bishop George Arnold about the Canon Allan P. Shatford Memorial Fund, from the 1970s. The file seems to have been created and used primarily by H. L. Palmer, who is identified in correspondence as Judge of the Probate Court in Prince Edward Island and Chancellor of the Diocese of Nova Scotia between the 1950s and 1970s. Details of his positions and tenure are not confirmed.	Box 90
4	"The Clergy and Staff of the Diocese of Nova Scotia 1989"	1989	0.50cm	Printed and bound directory of clergy and staff, 8 double-sided pages, including photographs of clergy and staff and names and addresses. 2 copies.	Box 90
5	Diocese of Nova Scotia and Provincial Synod Documents	1994-1995	2 cm	Various documents related to diocesan issues, such as stipend scales, and Synod NEWSlink reports circulated via email from the mid 1990s.	Box 90
6	The Diocesan Times	1946	0.25 cm	Newsletter, vol. 1, no. 12, December 1946, 39 pp., published in Truro, Nova Scotia. Addressed to Mr. H. H. Simpson, 12 Water Street	Box 90